Heatherdale Bowls Club News

4th April 24

What's New

For those who were not at the Presentation Night. Congratulations and well done to the following members.

The Coghlan Award was won by Bruce Hill. The Runner up Kingsley Fiske.

The Eklund Award had joint winners, Gunter Loidl and Henrik Cobelens. The Runner Up was Peter Kelsey.

It was wonderful to see the family of Jack Allison at our Presentation Night. They were there especially to see a new sign erected to honour one of our long serving members. You may have noticed we now have "Jack's Shed".

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Alan Moore who has been in hospital with pneumonia and Jill Spencer who suffered extensive injuries after an accident while out walking.

Thanks to those members who keep me informed and have suggestions for items to be included in our newsletter. I can't do it without your input. Don't forget to contact me, Di Tew on my email dmtew8@gmail.com, if you have any news item you would like included.

Help Us Grow (by Graeme White)

Pennant Bowls is over for 23/24, however, to help us grow, all members in the coming months need to be on the lookout for new members. Recruiting new members for Heatherdale does not just rest solely with members of the Board of Management. It is an ongoing challenge or a task for us all. One of our main objectives should be to bring back the strong social bowls events our club once enjoyed.

Events

The visit from the Warragul Bowls Club on April 19th is fast approaching. Please put your name down for this event ASAP to assist those organising the visit. This is always a very enjoyable day.
